Recycling Bins Open Feb. 16

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
JANUARY 15, 1991-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

Selectmen voted last Tuesday to accept the Recycling Committee's proposal to place five bins at the Town Barn on Mendell Road, with an opening date of Saturday, February 16th, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Members of the town's Recycling Committee Anthony Pelson and Marilyn Flood were joined by Board of Health members Daniel Lee, Robert Field and John Bosman, chairman, to support the committee's efforts. Mr. Lee said the committee has done a great job. "They took the bull by the horns and have done a lot of work to get the recycling program started."

In this meeting Mr. Pelson stressed they would have preferred to have the bins in the rear of the new police station for a weekly collection but will take the town barn as second choice. He said the five bins will be marked to receive aluminum, tin, white glass, dark colored glass and plastic. Volunteers will be in attendance during the collection time. Items collected will be taken by the trash collector contractor to the sanitary landfill. Highway Surveyor Wesley Bowman has given his permission to place the bins at the town barn and has offered to keep an eye on the area.

Mrs. Flood explained 5,000 notices will be printed on "hot pink" paper and distributed to town residents informing them of the recycling program. "There is a lot of education involved", said Mrs. Flood. The committee agreed this is just the beginning, it is hoped to have curbside pickup in the future.

In other business, Selectmen:

APPOINTED FOUR MEMBERS to the Mattapoisett School Building Needs Committee, following a joint vote by Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta, Mattapoisett School Committee Chairman Clara D. Morgan and Moderator R. William Blasdale.

Those appointed include: Mark Whalen, the school committee's designee; Peter P. Briggs, Steven D. Valliere and Elizabeth Smith. A fifth person will be sought to fill the committee as voted at the May 1990 annual town meeting.

The names of Robert Frates, a substitute teacher in the local school system, and Raymond Cabral, a teacher at Old Colony Vocational-Technical High School, had to be eliminated because the town meeting vote said, "four of the five members shall not be either teachers or members of a school committee".

HEARD A REPORT from Mr. DeCosta on the status of the doors at the new police station. The outside doors have been dented due to the high north and northwest winds and are in tough shape, he said.

A recommendation made by the architects, Brown and Lindquist, was not considered to be the best solution by selectmen. The board agreed to check into the legality of installing doors that open in for a public building, with Building Inspector Andrew J. Bobola. Other alternatives such as safety glass panels and double doors were discussed. There are funds in the building contingency fund to cover the cost, estimated to be $1,700.

HEARD A REPORT from Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney on the article in the February 4th special town meeting seeking funds to repair the middle wharf saying there could be a serious delay in being able to start work early enough to avoid fish migration in April.

The board agreed to delay work until November 1991 based on Mr. Mahoney's recommendation. He explained the delay would be caused by rules and regulations under Chapter 91, Division of Waterways and the Board of Water Pollution Control. There has to be a 45-day public comment period on licensing and based on the estimated dates of starting work March 18th after the paper work is complete, work would not be completed until June 18th, and this is too late.

Mr. Mahoney suggested and the board agreed to continue with the specifications and bids but include an amendment to extend the time to begin work until November 1, 1991. This will give a leeway to finish work in 90 days by January 1992. Mr. Mahoney added that with it all lined up ahead of time, the bidders will have more time and if anything goes wrong "we will hav until April to complete the work and not inte fere with the migratory fish."

Mr. Mahoney also said that "we've been pressured to get work started now because of the favorable economic climate for bids; h ever, our engineer informs us there is no im mediate safety problem with the wharf."

DESIGNER KITCHENS BY Angela

APPOINTED Officer Paul Magee as safety officer, at the recommendation of Police Chief James F. Moran. Officer Magee, who has been involved with safety programs in the local system, will replace former Safety Officer R. Stanley Ennis who has filed for retirement.

ANNOUNCED by Chairman DeCosta that the aerial photographs of Mattapoisett taken by the United States Department of Agriculture are being framed by the Graphic Arts Department of Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School.

Mr. DeCosta said Guido's Plate Glass Service Inc. of New Bedford has donated a 56 inch by 56 inch by ½" inch thick sheet of plexiglass to cover the aerial map. The map will be placed on the wall in the town hall conference room to replace the older one which has become well-worn.

Mattapoisett Town Election

SELECT. TALTY NOT TO SEEK REELECTION

Selectman Bernard F. Talty, whose first term is up this year, has made the official announcement that he will not seek a second term. "I feel it is time for someone else, and I do have other interests I would like to pursue. I served one term on the Old Colony School Committee, one term on the Housing Authority and one term as Selectman. I don't feel 'volunteer service should be a lifetime job."

Candidates for the three-year term on the Board of Selectmen are Paul E. Lambalot, 66 Acushnet Road, and Barry J. Denham, 5 Park Place.

In his first try at public office last year Mr. Lambalot was defeated for selectman by Daniel O. Mahoney. Holding the rank of colonel, Mr. Lambalot retired last May as commander of the state police. He is now Director of Safety for Suffolk Construction Company in Boston. He and his wife, Nancy, have four children.

Mr. Denham, presently serving on the Planning Board, is owner of Denham Construction. He has been a vocal spokesman for the Planning Board's new proposed zoning by-law. He and his wife, Deborah,

In other races, those who have taken out papers include: Christopher Jaskolka, a five-year term on the Planning Board. Lawrence O'Pezio's term expires this year and he has not taken out papers as of this date (January 18). Mr. Jaskolka ran for the office last year but was defeated by incumbent Richard E. Chase. Robert J. Fay, seeking office for the first time, has taken out papers for the three-year term on the Board of Assessors. Incumbent assessor John D. Gibbons has not taken out papers as yet. Mr. Fay is an instructor in the computer department at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical Regional High School; Steven D. Valliere for one of the two seats on the Mattapoisett School Committee. Maureen Best and Andrew Lynch have not taken out papers as yet seeking re-election to three-year terms.

Those seeking re-election are: Kathleen Briggs, Treasurer/Tax Collector; R. William Blasdale, Moderator; Marshall W. Pryce, Tree Warden; and Antone Nunes, Herring Inspector. Paul Magee, newly appointed police safety officer, has taken out papers for constable to fill the unexpired term of R. Stanley Ennis. Mr. Ennis has applied for retirement from the police department.

This year will be the first election under the new setup voted at the 1990 annual town

"Acushnet" Cup Plate

This year marks the 150th Anniversary of Herman Melville's first going to sea on a whaleship, the "Acushnet", sailing from Fairhaven, January 3, 1842. Melville is best known, of course, for his book "Moby Dick".

Although he jumped ship in the Marquesas Islands, in the Pacific, it is said that it was his voyage on the "Acushnet" that inspired him to write the book about the great white whale.

Pursuant to this anniversary year, may we remind you that the "Acushnet" was

How is good vision like an old saying?

How much trust would you have in a doctor who had two for one sales on gall stone operations? Not much, would you? Well Oxford Family Eye Care feels the same way about eye care. Unlike the franchises, we at Oxford Family Eye Care look at ourselves as a health care service - not a retail operation. Good vision is too important to be reduced to two for one sales. This health care approach has been our tradition. When you come to Oxford Family Eye Care you'll find a wide selection of frames, but more important, your prescription will be filled accurately and quickly. We also offer EMERGENCY SERVICE. Oxford Family Eye Care has always taken vision seriously, because we know that like an old saying, good vision can too easily be taken for granted.

Parents Speak Out at Meeting; Mr. Reed Receives Support

PRINCIPAL REED MAY OBTAIN CERTIFICATIO SAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Letters sent to parents, teachers and concerned residents were sent urging attendance at the Monday, January 14th, Mattapoisett School Committee meeting at which time the issue of Old Hammondtown School's Principal, William H. Reed's non-certification would be discussed in open session.

The letters and "word of mouth information" filled the auditorium at Old Hammondtown School with over 300 people. The supporters were rewarded with the School Committee's decision to allow Mr. Reed to obtain his Massachusetts Principal Certificate through the proper channels and with certain provisions.

The school committee, comprised of Chairman Clara D. Morgan, Maureen Best, Andrew Lynch (Mark Whalen was absent) and Old Rochester Regional District Superintendent Joan Walsh were represented by Attorney Duane R. Batista of Nutter, McClennen and Fish of Boston. Mr. Reed, who requested the open session, was represented by Attorney Mark Kaplan.

Following two hours of explanation by Mrs. Morgan, Attorney Batista, Superintendent Walsh, Mr. Reed and Attorney Kaplan, questions from school committee members and from the audience were taken.

In conclusion: The Mattapoisett School Committee unanimously voted to authorize the superintendent to submit a request to the state Department of Education on Certification to allow Mr. Reed to serve a supervised internship of 300 hours at Old Hammondtown School, at the will of the school committee, and depending on the state's response to the request. Also, that the superintendent find some way for Mr. Reed's continuity of serving not be disrupted and not be subject to review to another gathering such as this.

Mr. Hodges said "We don't want to be put in that type of position where the superintendent has the authority to review Mr. Reed's service and would possibly not recommend him for acceptance." His comments were received by bursts of applause from the audience. Ms. Walsh was asked if she would agree and she said yes.

mondtown School, presented a petition to allow Mr. Reed to obtain his certificate at this school and continue as principal. Her request was supported by a round of applause from a standing group of teachers.

Becky Zora-Booth, teacher, asked what administrative level reviewed Mr. Reed's tenure - a review that is necessary when tenure is given. "Why was it not researched then that Mr. Reed was not certified?" In response, Miss Walsh said she did recommend tenure for Mr. Reed in 1979 and noted she had no reason to believe her predecessor had not verified certification.

Attorney Batista explained this is not a matter of taking away tenure; as a matter of law he cannot have tenure now until one year after certification. It was noted that Mr. Reed's retirement benefits would not be affected by his non-certification.

Mrs. Morgan explained the school committee first heard of the problem on Mr. Reed's non-certification as principal at its December meeting.' "At the time we were in contract negotiations with Mr. Reed; these were suspended at the superintendent's recommendation until we could confer with our attorneys. There are a lot of rumors going around and we ask that you listen to facts."

Mr. Batista said he was contacted 1½ month ago by Miss Walsh. "She informed me there was no record at the district level nor the state level of Mr. Reed's certification as principal. Her attempts to contact Mr. Reed were unsuccessful; no certificate was provided. State law says a principal must be certified or granted a waiver. A waiver is granted only when no certified principal is available. When the public asks its questions we ask that you maintain control - no inflammatory or repetitious comments."

Superintendent Walsh reported she was no fied by her secretary Mary Sylvia, that in reviewing the records as far back as 1988 there was no copy of Mr. Reed's certificate on file.. Mrs. Sylvia continued to notify Mr. Reed from 1988 to the present but still no certificate was presented. Mr. Reed had made a comment in 1990 that he thought his certificate was in a safe deposit box.

Miss Walsh sent memos to Mr. Reed on November 6 and again November 23 with no response. Mr. Reed later stated he had not seen the memos. Miss Walsh met with Mr. Reed and the school's attorney on a possible breach of contract which he signed saying he had certification since 1976. Mr. Reed said he did not "knowingly make a false statement".

Attorney Kaplan asked Miss Walsh if a list of all staff and their names and credentials are on file, and if, so, why is it surfacing now? Miss Walsh said she was not here when Mr. Reed was employed. "Yes, we do keep a file and this non-certification was found in 1988."

Mr. Reed's Statement: "I requested an open session as I have nothing to hide and something to gain. I really became aware of the problem on November 26, 1990 that I was not certified. I felt I could find the papers in one of three places, but could not.

When I was hired in 1976 there was no verbal discussion on certification that I can recall. I did have a certificate as principal in Connecticut, and I had sufficient background to qualify in Massachusetts. I was aware of my certifiability. I recall Mrs. Sylvia's contacting me but I had no reason to know the certificate didn't exist. I should have paid more attention to Mrs. Sylvia and could have avoided this evening. I did not hear from Miss Walsh in 1988."

Mr. Reed continued, "I guess it's important to me - my life since November 26, 1990 I have been living in turmoil with many sleepless nights and restless days. I am thankful for the support from many persons."

He added, "I ask the school committee to take the necessary steps to allow me to obtain certification. My 15 years in Mattapoisett give you every reason to take positive action. I have not lied or acted fraudently. I have been up front and honest as I could."

Attorney Kaplan noted many states have reciprocal cases - Massachusetts and Connecticut are two of these. After 1976 if it had bee found by the school committee during those years it would have taken only a $10 check and application. In 1982 the rules for certication were changed and the state board of certification now requires additional courses, uch as school law, school finance, philosophy f education, plus 300 hours of supervised nternship.

Attorney Batista asked Mr. Reed why he lidn't respond to Miss Walsh's memos. Mr. leed replied he didn't see them. "My secreary had no recollection of the memos." 'Did you feel you had a certificate on file?" Mr. Reed said, "Yes, I felt the certificate was reciprocal."

Mr. John Atkinson, a member of the udience, said "Hearings like this are terific, but this is a hearing, not a lynching. recommend Mr. Reed get busy and get his ertificate by a specific date, pay out of his wn pocket and not take any hours from work."

Mr. Batista explained there were several ptions the school committee could take: do othing and continue with status quo which ill violate the law with possible penalties; ppoint someone else temporarily until Mr. leed obtains his certification and Mr. Reed ontinue as administrative assistant, with busiess the same on a day-to-day basis with very ttle change; after certification Mr. Reed ould become principal. An alternate option ould give Mr. Reed paid or unpaid leave ntil certification is obtained, or permit Reed o continue at the same position until the end f the year and not renew his contract.

Another alternative would be to terminate his employment as soon as possible. If the school committee chooses the option to work with Mr. Reed he will have to be recommended by the superintendent at that time. The school committee would have no authority to employ Reed until her recommendation.

Attorney Kaplan said there is a sixth option: Without appointing someone else the school committee with approval from the state can have Reed intern at Old Hammondtown for certification. The danger in Attorney Batista's approach is the superintendent can, at the end of the certification, refuse to recommend Reed. The attorney asked that the committee temper justice with mercy. This option protects the legality and the human aspect as well.

"The Nerd" at Art Center

Local actors and actresses are secretly having a ball rehearsing for the upcoming performance of "The Nerd" at the Marion Art Center. Playwright Larry Shue wrote only one other show in his brief lifetime. He took great delight in the effect his plays have on an audience. "You have tired, neurotic people filing in, and you have kids coming out -- giggling and flirting", he stated in a People Magazine interview in 1985.

"The Nerd" brings out the kid in all of us as the cast of this production is experiencing. Directed by Wendy Bidstrup, the group includes Judith Coykendall, Christopher LeBlanc, Abner Oakes, Nicky Pizzolato, Brian Scott, Jessica Shepardson and Donn Tyler. They are all looking forward to sharing the fun with the audience in February.

Reservations are now being accepted for performances February 7th, 8th, 9th, 14th, 15th, 16th at 8:00 p.m. Seating will be cabaret style. Call 748-1266.

Congregational Church

MATTAPOISETT

In a nation and a time when we are concerned with our military power, does the beatitude which instructs us "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth", make any sense to us. What kinds of power will lead us to a peace that is more than temporary? What will we have to let go of in order to be powerful? The title of the sermon this Sunday at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church will be "The Power of Meekness". Our worship service begins at 10:00 a.m. and nursery service is available. All are welcome.

LEARNING SKILLS AT ORR

The O.R.R. foreign language staff has adopted an approach to language teaching and evaluation which stresses proficiency in all four skills: speaking, listening, writing, and reading. This represents a departure from more traditional instruction which primarily emphasizes reading and writing. As a result of this four-skill approach, O.R. language students are able to communicate at an appropriate level in the languages they study.

STUDENTS VISIT MARINE SYMPOSIUM

by Lisa Cook

The High School Marine Studies Symposium, sponsored by the Massachusetts Marine Educators, was truly an interesting and informative conference. Schools from all over southeastern Massachusetts gathered together at Framingham State College for a series of three environmental workshops of their choice. My sessions included cooking fish, squid dissection, and fish photography, all of which were well presented and explained. The day was educational, not to mention lots of fun for everyone. At the end of the day we all met in the auditorium for the keynote address. We were shown beautiful slides of dives taken in the South Pacific. The marine life inhabiting the waters there is extraordinary. Seeing such remarkable sea life encourages me to learn about, and maybe even some day experience and explore, the depths of the ocean.

Financial Aid Clinic

FOR STUDENTS AND FAMILIES

The Office of Financial Aid at Southeastern Massachusetts University will hold a Financial Aid Clinic on Saturday, February 2nd, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The clinic will take place in the Commuter Cafeteria. Staff will assist students and families in completing the Massachusetts Financial Aid Form. The Financial Aid office at SMU also maintains a master file of merit and need based scholarships available to students attending any college or university.

Did You Know?

WHY ALL THE EFFORT?

RECYCLING one six-pack of aluminum cans saves enough electricity to watch a color TV for 18 hours;

RECYCLING a year's subscription to a newspaper saves almost two mature trees and a thousand gallons of water;

RE-USING one glass jar saves the electricity to burn a 100-watt light bulb for four hours;

WE THROW AWAY enough aluminum in three months to rebuild every airliner in our country;

IF A SINGLE print run of the Sunday New York Times is RECYCLED, it would save 75,000 trees; training workshops funded by a Commonwealth Institute Grant on January 28th, at 7:30 p.m. This workshop will meet in the library of Old Rochester Regional High School. The public is cordially invited to attend.

RECYCLING 1 ton of paper saves 19 trees;

Henry Perrin, Ed.D., director of the Cardinal Cushing School and Training Center in Hanover, will discuss Chapter 766 rules and regulations. He will cover procedures, practices and programs that relate to services for special needs students. This workshop will be particularly helpful in explaining how an individualized Educational Plan is developed and what parents should know before attending an IEP TEAM meeting.

If you would like more information about PAC activities or this program please call Carol Young, Director of Special Education at 748-2192.

Letter to the Editor

At 4:15 a.m. on the morning of January 15th we received a telephone call from our son, 1Lt. Gregory Louden, U.S. Army. He serves in an Engineering Battalion in the Saudi desert. We had a long talk and it was good to hear his voice.

Just before we said goodbye, we asked him if there was anything we could do for him. In reply, he asked if we would please send his thanks to all the folks back home who had written to him. He had time, just after he had arrived in Saudi Arabia, to answer some of the letters that he had received. Then he became so busy unloading tanks and equipment which followed him and his men from Germany; moving out into the desert; building the base camp; and making ready for their part of the "job". He has had little time to write.

He really wanted all here to know how much your letters and words of encouragement have meant to him. He hopes to be able to convey that to you himself real soon.

STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT OSPREY

Miss McQuillan's sixth grade class at Old Hammondtown School asked Mr. Gil Fernandes, an osprey expert, to come to the school on Thursday, January 10th, and teach us more about the osprey. He showed us a preserved osprey egg in a plastic cube. We watched slides about the osprey for an hour and a half and he explained each one carefully. His visit in our class was very interesting. Mr. Fernandes came to visit because we will be setting up some osprey poles in Mattapoisett. We have already selected some locations and Mr. Fernandes has offered to help us in the spring when we put them up.

JAZZ BAND

The Old Hammondtown School Jazz Band has been selected to perform at the Massachusetts Instrumental Conductors' Association Festival on Friday, March 22nd, at the Sheraton-Lincoln Inn and Conference Center in Worcester.

BUILDING TRUST THROUGH COMMITMENT

Earning the public's trust in serving its heating needs doesn't come easily. It requires a commitment to service through a team effort, beginning with a dedicated customer service staff ready to respond to your questions and needs. It demands well trained maintenance and installation technicians with the know-how to keep your equipment running safely and efficiently. Finally trust is earned through a delivery crew providing on time deliveries. STUDENTS ATTEND ZEITERION

Recently Nancy Castino, an English instructor at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School, and twenty Junior students attended a production of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew", held at the Zeiterion Theatre.

Mrs. Castino commented that the "costumes were in contemporary style and the scenery had an upbeat style". This was the first time most of the students had seen a Shakespearean play live. "The students were very impressed with the production", commented student Jamis Gamache.

OLD COLONY ON VIDEO

With the help of a state grant and the video expertise of David Fortin, Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School has its own school video.

The eight minute video provides the viewer with an overview of the vocational-technical facility. ' The video is used by the guidance department when presentations are made to community groups or interested eighth grade applicants. It highlights the varied vocational offerings, the academic program, and the extracurricular activities. According to Paula Simmons of Old Colony's guidance department, "It stimulates questions and provides a synopsis of what we are about."

Copies of the videotape are available in the local middle and junior highs. The guidance offices at Ford Junior High, Old Rochester Regional Junior High, Carver High, St. Francis Elementary, and the George Austin Middle School have copies of the production which can be taken home by students or parents. Naturally copies are available at Old Colony. To find out more information about the video or to borrow a copy contact your local school or the guidance office at Old Colony, 763-8011, ext. 26

eye talk

Q. Can eye exercises really straighten crossed-eyes?

A. You are probably referring to a treatment program called vision therapy. It uses various training procedures that are sometimes confused with eye exercises.

Vision therapy does not exercise the eyes in the sense of making eye muscles stronger. Instead, it uses repetition of specific procedures to sharpen or improve specific vision skills.

It has been highly successful in treating crossed-eyes because, unlike surgery, vision therapy attacks the root cause -- usually an inability of the eyes to work together as a team.

Optometrists skilled in providing vision therapy say it takes 3 to 12 months to achieve normal eye teaming, depending upon the severity of the problem. Studies show that 76 percent achieve straight eyes and normal vision with vision therapy, compared to 33 percent who undergo surgery.

Impressionist Morisot

FRIENDS OF DARTMOUTH LIBRARIES

At last we may get acquainted with Berthe Morisot.

"Five or six lunatics...make up a group of poor wretches who have succumbed to the madness of ambition and dared to put on an exhibition of their work. There is a woman in the group, as in all well known gangs. Her name is Berthe Morisot, and she is a curiosity She manages to convey a certain feminine grace despite her outbursts of delirium."

The art critic who wrote that stinging commentary was promptly challenged to a duel by Berthe's enraged husband. The setting was Paris in 1876. The exhibit had been mounted by a group of unconventional artists who would later become known as the French Impressionists, all of them world renowned - all except the woman member of th gang. For her, acclaim lagged. Born 150 years ago this month in Bourges, her art training began while she was still a young child. It was not until three years ago that the American people would be able to appraise her merit; in its first major exhibit in the 20th century, her work was shown in the National Gallery, Washington, DC in 1987, and in the same year the first critical biography of the forgotten painter was published. Berthe Morisot's work is now ranked among the finest of the Impressionist genre.

Area residents with an interest in easel art are cordially invited to view a lovely video presentation of "The Forgotten Impressionist" on Thursday, January 24th, starting at 11 a.m. at Southworth Library, South Dartmouth. The film was produced during a Morisot exhibit at Mt. Holyoke Art Museum two years ago.

This program is the first in the Winter Film Series II being sponsored by Friends of the Dartmouth Libraries. All programs deal with the work of significant artists or their life and times. Admission is free.

Art critics now rate Madame Morisot among the greatest women painters of the Post Classic era, and they bolster their evaluation with words and phrases such as: delicate, subtle, mastery of texture, luminous use of color, good design, exquisite.

The Friends of Dartmouth Libraries cordially urge the reader to accept this rare opportunity to gain a first-hand impression of a very special Impressionist.

The next program in the Winter Series II on January 31st will deal with artists and a distinctive period of art in the United States.

Festival of Indonesia

"TOPENG CIREBON..."

Masked dancers from West Java will perform ceremonial dances known as the Topeng Cirebon, accompanied by traditional Javanese music, at Southeastern Massachusetts University February 1st.

Tickets for the 7:30 p.m. performance in the Campus Center Main Auditorium are $7. for the general public, $6. for SMU faculty, staff and senior citizens, and $3. for SMU students and children under 12. Tickets will be sold at the door and at the University Box Office, 999-8598.

The Festival of Indonesia, of which the Topeng Cirebon is a part, is an 18-month celebration in the United States of Indonesia's rich and diverse cultural heritage. The festival had its official opening at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts on September 16, 1990.

The Topeng Cirebon's three dancers -- Sujana Arja, lead dancer; Keni Arja, dancer, and Sandrut Bin Sarwiti, the clown -- wear kedok or masks that are works of art carved by master craftsmen to represent the different characters of the dance.

The performance begins with talu, an orchestral overture, as the lead dancer puts on his costume. When the overture ends, the dancer burns incense over a tray of offerings and prays while the musicians play the first piece of dance music.

The dancers are accompanied by the music of the gamelan -- the entire ensemble of bronze metallaphones, gongs, flutes and drums most commonly tuned to one of several different scales.

Initially, the lead dancer only sits, his back to the audience, still absorbed in his prayers. The clown, leading the musicians with clattering strokes on an instrument made of suspended metal plates, plays with his mallets as if they were shadow-puppets. Eventually the dancer stands up and dances for a few minutes with his back to the audience. Then he picks up his first mask, that of Panji.

Panji, the noble, refined hero of Javanese legend, wears a white mask befitting his pure devout character. He is followed by a second, contrasting character called Pamino. Although his mask is also white, he is laughing and playful.

The next two characters represent more mature figures: Rumyang's mask is pink and his dances are lively and exuberant.

Tumenggung, the fourth character, wears a red mask to symbolize responsibility and an adult personality. He enacts the story of the king's trusted warrior who is sent to subdue the rebellious Jingganonom, who is portrayed by the clown dancer.

Klana, the fifth and final character, is an ogre king who covets the princess of Bawarna, Panji's betrothed. Klana is a greedy, lawless character; his dark red mask symbolizes unrestrained passions. His energetic and exciting dance is the most popular with Javanese audiences, who view the Topenk Cirebon performance as a cycle which will begin again with Panji, the pure, first character.

The Festival of Indonesia, hosted by the SMU Cultural Affairs Committee, is made possible in part by ARCO, the Ford Foundation, Garuda Indonesia Airways, and the Governor West Java.

Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour

COMES TO THE ZEITERION

THE GLEN CAMPBELL GOODTIME HOUR REVISITED with special guest stars, Jim Stafford, John Hartford, Nicolette Larson and the Jeff Dayton Band, comes to New Bedford's Zeiterion Theatre on Tuesday, January 29th, at 8:00 p.m. WCTK 98.1 FM, New Bedford's country radio station, is sponsoring this once-in-a-lifetime reprise of the popular television series which aired in the early 1970s.

"I'm not a country singer per se -- I'm a country boy who sings", Glen Campbell once told an interviewer. For over two decades he has performed his music, resulting in over forty albums, four gold singles, twelve gold albums and seven platinum albums. Glen has won four Grammy Awards and has been named Entertainer of the Year by the Academy of Country Music.

studio session guitarist, Glen played on the recordings of artists as diverse as Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole, Elvis Presley, Ray Charles, Bobby Darin, The Association and the Mamas and the Papas. In the early 1960s, he began recording his own music, and in 1967 he received his first national recognition as an artist with the folk-flavored John Hartford tune, "Gentle on My Mind". Four months later came "By The Time I Get to Phoenix", and his success was confirmed. Since then he has had many hits including "Wichita Lineman", "Galveston", "Rhinestone Cowboy", "Faithless Love", "Any Which Way You Can", and "Still Within the Sound of My Voice".

Glen will be joined by Jim Stafford, singer, comedian, TV personality and writer of such hits as "The Swamp Witch", "Spiders and Snakes" and "My Girl Bill". In addition to his music Jim has had an extensive television career which began with his own show, "The Jim Stafford Show", and also includes "Those Amazing Animals", "Nashville on the Road" and most recently, "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour".

John Hartford, singer, songwriter, banjo virtuoso and fiddle player, first received national exposure on the television shows, "The Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour" and "The Smothers Brothers comedy hour". He appeared to the audience as a tall lanky figure holding Nicolette Larson, an award-winner in both country and popular categories, is best known for her recordings of "Lotta Love", "Fool Me Again", "I Only Want to Be With You", "Let Me Go Love" and "That's How You Know When Love's Right". For her country work she was named Best New Vocalist by both "Cashbox Magazine" and the Academy of Country Music. In pop music she was named Best New Female Vocalist by "Performance Magazine", and received a similar honor at the Disc Jockey Music Awards. A well-rounded entertainer, Nicolette has also pursued an acting career, and most recently played the part of a nightclub singer in the movie "Twins".

mon elder, and some land birds including short-eared owl, and ring-necked pheasant.

Please pre-register for this walk by calling the Lloyd Center at 990-0505 or stopping by the Center at 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth. Fees for this program are $3. for Lloyd Center members, $5. for non-members, and $1. for children 12 and younger.

Upcoming walks from the Lloyd Center include: the Winter Beach at Sunset on February 3rd and an Owl Prowl on February 10th. The Lloyd Center will be running its second Seal Watch of 1991 on February 9th. Call the Center now to reserve your place at one of these exciting programs.

Happenings at Lloyd Center

The new year has brought many changes to the Lloyd Center including a new director. At this time the Board of Directors of the Lloyd Center is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Mello, formerly Research Coordinator at the Lloyd Center, to become the new Director and to replace former Executive Director Alan Hankin.

"I'm excited about 1991. It will be an exciting year, combining long standing programs and new initiatives. We are still offering all of the major programs which have become synonymous with the Lloyd Center and we are expanding some of our programs through cooperative efforts with Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute, the Marine Biological Laboratory and Southeastern Massachusetts University", said Mr. Mello recently. Indeed the winter will be a busy time at the Center. Every Sunday there will be a nature walk as part of our Weekly Walk Program, including the ever popular owl watches in February. This is the third year of our highly successful seal watch trips to Cuttyhunk aboard the MV Alert. More people then ever are taking advantage of the opportunity to view seals in the wild and to explore the island of Cuttyhunk. This spring the Lloyd Center will be offering a full menu of minicourses including the ever popular Native American minicourse and ones on birding, nature photography and butterfly gardening.

In addition to these programs for the general public, the Center Education Staff is busy teaching school children through our Traveling Laboratory Program. "Traveling Lab allows the schools to augment their science programs by bringing us into their classrooms", reflected Krystal Tolley, instructor. "We teach the students about the various scientific disciplines and methods through this program based on different aspects of the marine environment." In the spring the Center Education Staff will be busy teaching Coastal Field Studies (CFS). CFS is the opposite of Traveling Lab in that the students come to the coast. During a CFS students are introduced to the varied environment of our coasts. They investigate the salt marsh, dunes and estuary learning about the plants and animals found there and how these creatures survive. "CFS is a wonderful opportunity to teach kids about science and the environment while having a good time too", remarked Instructor Krystal Tolley.

The winter months are also a good time to visit the Lloyd Center. Explore one of our several trails and witness first-hand the many changes winter brings to the maritime forest. Then come inside and warm up while viewing our current exhibit, DARTMOUTH BY THE SEA, which features artwork from the Dartmouth students. Be sure to leave time to view the aquaria in the building, to visit the touch tank, and take in the spectacular view from the top floor.

Winter building hours are: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. The grounds are open dawn to dusk 365 days a year. For information on any of the Lloyd Center programs mentioned above please call the Center at 990-0505 or stop by at 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth.

classic silent film will be presented with live organ accompaniment provided by Lee Erwin on the restored Grimshaw-Gudewicz Wurlitzer Theatre Organ.

"The General", which premiered in 1926, is considered by many critics to be one of the last great comedies of the silent era. The film, an authentic period piece, takes place during the Civil War and is based on a true incident. The film title does not refer to Keaton's character, but to his engine, "The General", which figures prominently in one of the most harrowing and hilarious chase scenes. Keaton portrays the engineer Johnnie Gray who is rejected by the Confederate Army, and then suffers the further humiliation of his girlfriend (played by Marion Mack) thinking him a coward. When a small band of Union soldiers penetrate beyond Confederate lines to steal "The General", Johnnie Gray sets off in hot pursuit. Keaton, who also directed the film with Clyde Bruckman, shot the film on the narrow railways of Oregon. Leonard Maltin gave the film Four Stars. "One of Buster Keaton's best silent comedies - some say his greatest film, and one of the cleverest of all time".

Lee Erwin of New York will be returning to the Zeiterion to play the silent film scores for the entire series. In September Mr. Erwin played the score for the benefit performance of "Down to the Sea in Ships" sponsored by the Volunteer Council of the New Bedford Whaling Museum and the Zeiterion Theatre. Mr. Erwin is known by millions of Americans as a featured organist on both radio and television for more than thirty years. He was the chief organist for the famous "Moon River" radio program on Cincinnati's WLW radio, and later became organist, composer and arranger for the various Arthur Godfrey shows. He has composed new scores for many of Hollywood's silent movie masterpieces, giving them new life on theatre organs in movie palaces across the nation.

The series will continue on February 21st, with "The Thief of Bagdad" starring Douglas Fairbanks, followed by "The Gold Rush" on March 21st, the film which established Charlie Chaplin as one of the finest screen artists. The series will feature on April 18th "The Phantom of the Opera" with Lon Channey, and will conclude on May 23rd with "The Freshman" starring Harold Lloyd.

Tickets for the Classic Film Series are $5.00
